Ignite Success: A Professional Development Conference

October 12, 2023 | 8:00am-4:00pm

At the Community Harvest Project Barn
37 Wheeler Road, North Grafton, MA 01536

During this one-day workshop you will not only build your Emotional Intelligence muscle through the power of story, but you will also learn the art of storytelling. Whether you are in sales communicating with your customer, a non-profit trying to reach potential donors, or an entrepreneur; become proficient in telling your story in a provocative way to reach your target market. As Cheryl Hamilton, Founder and Executive Director of the Stellar Story Company, points out, "Each day we write a story when we decide what to focus on, what we rehash and what we worry about."

Ignite Success: A Professional Development Conference will give you the tools to help drive how you interact with co-workers, form your decision making and ultimately attain your success. This conference is fabulous for team building! Who is editing your story

Who would benefit? School administrators, business leaders, C-Suite, Small businesses, non-profits & sole proprietors!

Members: $200

Future Members: $275

(Group discounts available for company team building)

Included: Participants receive a Lego® Serious Play® Starter Kit, continental breakfast, and lunch.
